

APPROVE ELECTIVE FORM OF COMMISSION

Warm Debate in Y. M. C. A. Last Night Results in Decision In Favor

The auditorium at the Y.M.C.A. was packed to the doors last night to hear the discussion on the commission form of government.

Mr. Logan's team argued the affirmative and was represented by Mr. J. H. Wilson, district manager of the New York Life, and Mr. J. H. Wilson, of the Department of Municipal Affairs, while Mr. Wilson's team, represented by Mr. H. Higginbotham, and Mr. Webster of Young and Kennedy's bank were, spoke in the negative.

Mr. Newman proved once more that he has a very fine gift of speech and in the glowing picture he painted of the elective commission he took time to take a thrust at the present system.

After a short explanation of the elective idea he called to witness the success that had been attained in some three hundred municipalities in the United States where the new system had lessened the expense of administration and had freed personal responsibility on each public official for all the workings of his department. Because Edmonton is the biggest thing in Edmonton the city could afford to pay a very high salary to each of the five commissioners and thus secure for the public the services of the very best administrators to be found. The initiative referendum and recall formed a part of the program in the hands of the people to secure clean government. Instead of group responsibility once a year under the elective commission there is personal responsibility every month, because the recall is effective in sixty days on an official elected for a term of years. Mr. McCordell, in a series of very bright arguments, spent most of his time in pointing out discrepancies in the present system.

Mr. Webster argued that a system that suggested for its own safety the recall conferred in its very perfection the right to recall to its own safety. He had been met elsewhere and even if other cities had been successful in such a system, this city, loaded as it is with municipal utilities could not safely entrust so much responsibility to such a small number of men. No other city had faced the idea in our circumstances and we should, therefore, be content.

Mr. Higginbotham, in an able address, examined full of arguments, rested most of his reasoning on the success of the council system as it is in England, which nation, he said, exceeds all others in the science of city government and he spoke of the great opportunity of graft and all similar forms of political corruption when great powers are in the hands of five men alone.

The Hon. A. G. Mackay acted as judge, and in a half hour address reviewed the case from start to finish in a masterly and humorous style. Telling the debate all in all he was content that the affirmative had won.

The audience then launched into a discussion of the subject.

The first debate held under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Debating Society will be held at the Y.M.C.A. on the 26th, at 8 p.m. sharp, on the question of Divorce Courts. All are welcome.

MOST-FAVORED-NATION CLAUSE CONTROVERSY

Germany and the U. S. Scrapping Over Admission Free of Canadian Wood-Pulp Into U. S.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The "most favored nation" clause in international treaties became again today the subject of negotiations between Germany and the United States in connection with the question of free admission of Canadian wood pulp into the United States under a clause of the Canada-American reciprocity agreement.

It is pointed out here that the United States applied to Germany for full equality of treatment under the treaty negotiated by Germany with Sweden and Japan in 1912, in view of the lapse of the Canadian law regarding wood pulp.

When the United States later took the standpoint that Canada's wood pulp and reciprocity did not come within the province of the "most favored nation" clause, and that its benefits were not available to nations having such clauses in their treaties with the United States, Germany also announced her adoption of new interpretation of the treaty, and withheld from the American importer the reduced rates on electric wire and other articles, accorded to Sweden and Japan in the recent trade treaty.

MEASLES IN ALASKA

Epidemic Has Broken Out on Kodiak Island—More Than 100 Cases.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Final instructions were telegraphed last night by Acting Commander Emery, of the revenue cutter service, to Captain Woodbury in command of the north coast district at Seattle, regarding the need to be sent to the inhabitants of Kodiak Island, Alaska, where an epidemic of measles has developed. Captain Woodbury was directed to co-operate with the local health authorities and other supplies the Red Cross will furnish at Seattle. The Tahomans still remain north as soon as possible. More than one hundred cases of measles have developed on Kodiak Island and neighboring islands, and there have been several deaths.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 11.—Trapped on the second floor of their home near Beardstown, five members of the family of M. D. Lauer were killed or death and one fatally injured in an early morning fire that consumed the house.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1915

ONE POINT CLEAR.

Claims for damage to property caused by the construction of the Jasper avenue subway now total $658,616. When the subway was built the rate-payers were assured that the damages would not likely exceed $50,000. As yet there is nothing definite about the matter except that whatever the damages amount to the rate-payers will have to pay it.

THE GOVERNING CLASS.

Tammany's leader, named Murphy, whose candidate for mayor of New York was beaten by the efforts of a man named Hiram, has appeared to the President of the United States named Wilson, against the appointment of a man named Malone to succeed to a government post vacated by the newly elected mayor, named John Purroy Mitchell. The standing mystery of the age is why two million Irishmen prefer to stay in Ireland and fighting as to whether they shall govern themselves when they might go to the United States and govern them selves and everybody else.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM

Gen. N. Armstrong may or may not have been the most politically satisfactory candidate for the vacant postmastership of the city. But what Mr. Armstrong knows about running a post-office could be put in a pen and shell without risk of damaging the shell and he probably knows as much about it as any of the rival aspirants who hope to tread down in ruins when his appointment was announced. Students of political economy would find persons who think merit should count, and the public out who whose pockets the money comes will place obstacles in the way of the civil reform administration of Hon. Robert Laird Borden the plans in the postal service are handed out as the reward of military service, and men who have worked up from the bottom are allowed to keep on working up—to a deputyship in which they will receive the privilege of carrying the responsibility and doing the work for which another man craves the pay.

TWICE CONCERNED

The storm which stirred the shores of the Great Lakes with corpses and wreckage will be limited in its sorrowful results mainly to the cities and towns which stand those shores. But the issue of lake navigation, which the storm period presages will impose its less terrible but not less real hardships upon the people of provinces, will be the issue from the lakes. To the inland people of Ontario and the states across the water a storm which sends ships and crews to the bottom of lakes and wrecks remote occurrence, without the sting of personal consequences. That because the lake navigation system is not an essential factor in the lives of inland dwellers of Ontario and of the waterfront states. The close of lake navigation which the autumn and winter foretell is a matter of intimate and personal concern to every farmer, business and professional man on the prairies, for it means the sudden slackening and the probable stoppage of the outward flow of grain and the inward flow of money. Financially the people of Alberta are closer to the Great Lakes than most of those whose province or state borders on the water line. They are proportionately concerned in what the fall storms foretell, as they are humanely concerned in the havoc wrought by them.

VAIN HOPES.

Congratulations are due to ex-Mayor Armstrong on the acquisition of the postmastership of the city. But in the pleasant duty of greeting the successful aspirant a human-hearted public ought not to forget to shed a tear over the ruined hopes and blighted ambitions of a half-dozen other worthy citizens who thought they had a chance on the job.

MORE CONTRIBUTIONS IN PROSPECT?

The Journal thinks everyone who takes a long look ahead at the probable development of inter-tribal relations and the apportionment of Imperial duties and responsibilities will approve the proposal to loan $35,000,000 to the Admiralty for naval purposes. If this means anything, it must be that a periodical contribution is regarded as the permanent naval policy of the Government.

THE TERROR OF HIS LIFE.

Mr. Samuels, the British postmaster-general, is surprised that Premier Roblin takes exception to his statement of fact regarding the non-attendance of Manitoba education at school union, if you please, school law of that Province.

Mr. Samuels does not know Premier Roblin. His type is not found among the conspicuous political figures of Great Britain. The British Minister does not understand why Manitoba's Premier should be offended at the truth. The truth is the one thing that Premier Roblin is afraid of.

THE GAS PROPOSAL.

On the general principle there will probably be found a large majority of the rate-payers who prefer buying gas from a company to spending a large sum of city money in prospecting for gas. Prospecting for anything is more or less of a gamble. Prospecting for gas in this district is distinctly a gamble. It is safer, and therefore better, for the community to let private parties take the risk, the more so as private parties are apparently quite willing to do it.

Admitting that point reduces the question of a gas supply to the question of getting the best agreement that can be got with the rate-payers. On the main points are concerned, the proposal made by the Pelican company appears to be by all odds the best on the program. The main points are not, however, the ones of importance in an agreement which would hold for a long term of years. The details of the offer will be made available to the public when they have been put into the form of a by-law for submission to the voters. When the agreement is made, rather than the abstract question of company gas versus city prospect—will likely decide how the votes will be marked.

EXPOSURE ESCAPED.

To R. L. Richardson and his supporters belongs the credit of having fought the Macdonald election case to a finish—or as the case of the Hon. H. H. Richardson and Sir Redmond Palin Roblin dared allow it to go. But to Hon. Robert Rogers and Sir Redmond Palin Roblin belongs the credit of having exposed the practical advantages of a Jack-down which prevented the shameful history of the Macdonald campaign being written on the bottom of lakes and wrecks in the language of sworn witnesses. So long as Hon. Robert Rogers and Sir Redmond Palin Roblin have the power to stigmatize as unfounded falsehood charges which would have been proven to the hilt in the courts, they will not begrudge R. L. Richardson and his friends the empty credit of having done all that could be done to bring the truth to light. To allow the Macdonald case to go to trial would have meant that the Macdonald would have been kicked out of the seat by a legal decision, that the regiment of bribers and intimidators shipped to the people of Alberta, and closer to the Great Lakes than most of those whose province or state borders on the water line. They are proportionately concerned in what the fall storms lured in the penitentiary. A conviction that that result would follow was the fear that led to the back-down by which Morrison vacated his seat without a struggle and by which Hon. Robert Rogers and Sir Palin Roblin escaped exposure as the primary promoters of political rivalry.

SPEAK FOR IT!

THE PERSECUTED PEOPLE.

The trial of M. Belles at Kiev, Russia, on a charge of ritual murder has attracted notice in all parts of the civilized world and has drawn protests from many parts and from many schools of religious faith.

His acquittal will be regarded as also a vindication of his race against a monstrous slander which was often made a pretext for judicial hearing in a strikingly bloody ages, but which, wanting this revival, might be supposed to have passed into oblivion with the passage of time.

Belles is a Jew. The charge laid against him was that he murdered a Christian boy in pursuance of an alleged custom of his people to use Christian blood in connection with the anniversary of the Passover. That a tale of that character could gain enough credence to be made the basis of a judicial hearing is a striking reflection upon the extent to which age-old hatreds and superstitions impose upon the Russian civilization of the twentieth century.

But there is worse to be said. It is doing no violence to the probabilities to say that had not the world rung with surprise and disgusted protests against the revival of this barbarous charge, Belles would likely have gone to the scaffold, and his people, been freely branded with the cruel label, it is to the telegraph, the newspaper, and official Russia's fear of outraging the Jews. In such cases if the police was not aided by the soldiery and the police, it was certainly not much hindered by them. Late dispatches say that armed Cossacks are now patrolling the streets of Kiev to prevent such an outbreak. That may be good news for the Jews, or it may not. Those who know most of the Cossacks' history will be readiest to doubt their readiness to kill and be killed in the effort to prevent a massacre of the Jews, still its accompanying riot of slaughter

SHOULD ACCEPT JOKE

IN SPIRIT IT IS MADE Editor Bulletin:

Will you please to "Another Type of Englishman's" letter in Wednesday's Bulletin, we do not think from our personal experience that your correspondent should take offence at the type he mentions being caricatured. It is open to question, in our opinion, whether the better class of Englishmen, he speaks of, would, one of the reasons the average Englishman finds so many things to take offence at here is that he seems to find it impossible to adapt himself to the free air of Canada. He is intolerant of anything which he can construe into a joke at his own expense. In other words, he is continually looking for trouble and as a rule, finds it.

We see every day on the stage our Irish, Scotch, German and Yankee friends being caricatured in the same manner as respects. Everybody laughs and takes the joke in the spirit in which it is given. But beware—touch your fine Englishman, and immediately there is a mischievous look. He insists that "Another Type" take a tumble to himself and learn to take a joke with the rest of us. If he cannot do this our best advice to him is to go out on the ice steamer.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 12.—Wheat opened a little weaker on lower cables but the market was strong support and through the close at Liverpool indicated a further decline, prices held steady. Receipts are heavy and stocks accumulating. Flax shows little change. Cash trade is fair but the export business will not suffer from being hampered by damage to the lake freighters during the recent storm. Receipts show no diminution and inspections for today were 1,477 cars inspected, and 1,375 in sight.

American inspection: Duluth, 432 cars; Minneapolis, 296 cars; and Chicago, 35 cars.

Cable close: Liverpool, 3-8 to 1-2 lower; Paris, unchanged to 1-2 lower; London, 3-4 up; India, 2-1 lower; Antwerp, unchanged.

To the Ratepayers and Tenants of the City of Edmonton

Ladies and Gentlemen—At the request of a number of the recognized best business men of this City to offer myself as a candidate for aldermanic honors at the forthcoming city election, I have considered it my duty to do so.

I have been a resident of Edmonton since 1902 and believe that I should be able to do good work as a member of the City Council. If you, the electors, choose to elect me, I will most assuredly appreciate your confidence and support. Should I be elected I have only one promise to make, and that is, that I will endeavor to serve the City, and the City only, to the best of my ability.

That a plebiscite should be taken before the next session of the Legislature to obtain the views of the electors on the question of Municipal Government by Elective Commission, meets with my approval.

Yours respectfully,
J. R. McINTOSH

FOR AFTERNOON WEAR

Velvet is the vogue of the day and is here shown in dark blue, a shade very much in favor. The touch of fur trimming is chic. The hat is a smart black and blue velvet.

Chinchilla and blue velvet are a wonderfully becoming combination to the average woman, as both blend to form subject of glancing note, with these two shades. Chinchilla, while not new, is still a very smart bet.

WILL KEEP GREAT LAKES OPEN LONG AS POSSIBLE

Department of Marine and Fisheries Will Continue Policy Adopted Last Year.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—The Department of Marine and Fisheries has decided to continue the policy adopted last year of keeping navigation in the Great Lakes open as late as possible. The usual practice has been to withdraw lighthouse keepers on December 1st. This year they will be withdrawn only in such cases as would involve risk of life to remain, and other lighthouse keepers will remain at their posts as long as weather conditions permit. The same policy will be adopted in regard to the St. Lawrence route.

A REALISTIC SCENE

One of the most realistic scenes that has been presented at the Theatre in several weeks is the rain scene in the first act of "Caught in the Rain," the irrepressible Willie Collier farce. This scene was handled with a faithfulness and realism that with the spotlight playing on the delay it makes a scene of rare beauty and interest. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play.

PLAY IS POPULAR

Judging by the enthusiasm displayed by audiences at the Lyceum Theatre in several weeks is the rain scene in the first act of "Caught in the Rain," the irrepressible Willie Collier farce. This scene was handled with a faithfulness and realism that with the spotlight playing on the delay it makes a scene of rare beauty and interest. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play. A scene like that displayed in the first act is seldom seen in a play.

The "Third Degree," Charles Klein's remarkable drama dealing with the notorious murder in which metropolitan police extract confessions from prisoners will be the offering of the Lyceum theatre next week, with Miss Irene Lorton in the leading feminine role of Mrs. Anne Arford.

What the Advance Man Says

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY." Miss Anne Bradley, a delightful young actress, is to be at the Lyceum Theatre tonight in a brand new play by Owen Davis, entitled "What Happened to Mary." It is a dramatic offering of a present made many times over, and gives this distinguished actress an opportunity to show her most pronounced dramatic work she has yet done. Though in its dramatic form it is a very strong, there is at the same time a thread of charming and amusing comedy running through it. Characteristic of all Miss Bradley has to offer, her presentation of the role of the most careful study on her part. The play has been mounted most lavishly and is presented by a company containing a number of excellent players.

AT THE EMPRESS.

It took only two cabarets to induce Fred Lockley to leave the number one and the number two in America to work for the Selig Film Company. The first cabaret merely asked for his services, and the second stated the weekly remuneration there was in it. Fred Lockley, who is figuring prominently in "The Water Hat" production at the Empress today, was known to the underworld as the "hypnotic detective." His long connection with Scotland yard was a remarkable one as he was instrumental in solving some of the most baffling mysteries that ever came before the attention of the police.

Now he is in the employ of the Selig people and his services are being used as good before the camera as he is when solving some deep mystery.

A leader of fact his part in the pictures portrays the work of a detective solving one sensational robbery after another.

The Empress will offer a special attraction on Monday and Tuesday next when the picture entitled "In Touch With Death," will be presented. It is a dramatic production and thrilling in every detail.

AT THE BLOU.

A new exciting and thrilling picture has just been offered at the Blou last night, that is the one entitled "The Strangler." There are many stirring scenes and climaxes in the offering that the eye of the watcher is led to continually on the screen. The story told by the camera was one of the most gripping that has been told in the history of the cinema. If they were interested in the young man who was accused at first by his fellow soldiers and later developed into being a real hero.

In the picture the performers are through some very daring and dangerous feats. In one scene they are seen to be in a situation of great peril.

That a plebiscite should be taken before the next session of the Legislature to obtain the views of the electors on the question of Municipal Government by Elective Commission, meets with my approval.

J. R. McINTOSH

ENGLISH BARONET MAY HAVE ESCAPED BEING MURDERED

Sir John Beloe Shot Burglar in His House at Wanstford, Near London

HAD RECEIVED BLACK HAND LETTER SEP. 15TH

Scotland Yard Fore Object of Man Who Entered House Was to Kill Baronet

London, Nov. 12.—The London papers yesterday give accounts of how Sir John Henry Beloe, Bart., member of parliament for Hereford, and a burglar who broke into his home, Farnhouse, Wanstford, near London, last night. Sir John said the man was after silver worth £500, which he later found dragged in a towel hidden in a hedge, but it was learned today that Scotland Yard fears that the man entered the house with the purpose of murdering the baronet.

The whole affair is the sequence of the "black hand" threat, which Sir John received on September 15th. The baronet, or assassin, whichever he may prove to be, were rubber-banded shoes and a black mask. Sir John had shot at him, he fled. Sir John, who is a prominent director of the London and North Western railway, received a letter on September 15th at his home, Farnhouse, from "black hand," in which he was instructed to place the money under the steps of Wanstford church, before six o'clock on the morning of September 15th.

The communication, which was written in good script, threatened death if the order was not obeyed, and hinted at dire disaster to him and all his family if the demands were not met.

At first Sir John was not at all alarmed, but he later decided to call on Scotland Yard and detectives were assigned to the case. A decoy package was placed under the church steps, but the blackmailer was suspicious and the ruse failed.

A difference with the Painters Club, some five thousand of whom were on strike, is supposed to have inspired the attempt to extort money from the baronet. The note signed "Hajagos."

Sir John said in Parliament for the Hereford division of Hereford, the largest constituency in the country, was elected.

First Provincial Synod Of Diocese of Edmonton An Historical Occasion

Organization of New Anglican Diocese Being Effected Today—
Constitution of Calgary Diocese to be Adopted—Bishop Will Not be Appointed Till Endowment Fund is Sufficient to Provide Stipend of at Least $3,000 Per Annum.

Lieutenant-Governor Hays yesterday welcomed delegates, lay and clerical, to the first synod of the Anglican church in the newly-formed Diocese of Edmonton. The synod, which is the first of its kind in the province, was held in the morning at the Hotel Macdonald. The delegates, who were elected by the various dioceses in building up a high standard of life and ideal in the communion. He congratulated the delegates on the formation of the new diocese and said that he trusted that the new bishop, whoever he should be, would have the support, not only of the members of his own church, but of the citizens generally.

The morning session adopted the constitution of the Calgary diocese to be followed until the next synod, and also adopted the first eight of the list of canons of the diocese of Calgary. The other canons were considered in the afternoon.

John K. D.C.L., was appointed by the bishop as chancellor of the new diocese to advise on questions of law and constitution. Ven. Archdeacon Gray acted as temporary secretary in the morning until the session elected R. C. Pardee as honorary secretary. Edward Tenby, C.A., was elected clerk. Other appointments including an executive committee will be made later.

Today delegates are in session at the first provincial synod of the new Church of England diocese of Edmonton, for the purpose of adopting a constitution. It is proposed that as the diocese is being formed out of the dioceses of Calgary and Edmonton, it has hitherto been a part, that the constitution of the diocese of Calgary be taken with such amendments as may be necessary. There is at present no church of England in Edmonton, the provincial synod being opposed to the election of a bishop until a minimum stipend of at least $3,000 a year is provided. The greater part of this has been secured through the generosity of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and Canon Hartley, who between 1870 and 1875 secured for the first two years a sum of $2,445. The diocese of Calgary has undertaken to find half the residue, on condition that the other half be found by the diocese of Edmonton. It is therefore expected that the provincial synod will, at an early date, authorize the calling of a special synod of the diocese for the election of the first bishop of Edmonton.

The meeting of the first synod of the new diocese marks an important step in the development of the religious life of the Northwest. The diocese of the province of Alberta, which was formed in 1873, found four dioceses of Rupert's Land, Moose, Peace, and Athabasca, which were to form the ecclesiastical province of Prince Rupert's Land. The diocese of Calgary, which is today providing over the area of the diocese of Edmonton, only five years after his consecration as bishop of Saskatchewan, in August, 1873, was the first for the erection of the civil district of Alberta into a new diocese. The suggestion met with the approval of the provincial synod, and in January, 1888, Bishop Plunkinhead presided over the first synod of the diocese of Calgary. Bishop Plunkinhead eventually resigned his jurisdiction over the Saskatchewan part of the diocese, although he administered and while engaged in raising the endowment fund for the diocese of Calgary he administered both the diocese of Saskatchewan and Calgary separately over a combined area of 260,000 square miles.

Composition of New Diocese.
These interesting facts in the history of the development of the Northwest were called to mind by Bishop Plunkinhead in his address to the diocesan and lay delegates to the synod today. The new diocese includes territory lying north of the north boundary of township 42, or north of Ponoka, and has hitherto formed one-third of the whole diocese of Calgary. Returns for last year showed that the new diocese was made up of the following: Organized parishes 40, unorganized congregations 25, church people 9,447, revenue raised for all its purposes locally $24,895.35, value of church property $254,216, debt on church property $12,023, and the endowment fund $1,000. These figures do not include the following parishes and congregations which no returns were available: Vegreville, Lamont, North Bank, Podolski River, Greenock, Telfordville, Dandurand.

Financial Provisions.
Regarding the financial provisions for the new diocese. The House of Bishops calls for an endowment fund of at least $50,000 and an assured income of at least $2,000 per annum before commencing the election of a bishop of Edmonton. The House for the purpose of the diocese of the Gospel has offered to provide $1,342 and after that an annual amount of $1,000 until the endowment fund is completed. Canon Hartley has promised $100 per annum from the endowment fund. The remainder is to be raised jointly in equal proportions by the dioceses of Calgary and Edmonton. The executive of the Calgary diocese has decided to allocate to the new diocese one-third of its grant received from the special Western Canada Fund and other sources for the year 1912. The portion Edmonton will receive from these grants is therefore $4,135. There is also another item of $10, making the total grant $15,235.

Endowment Fund.
The bishop announced to the synod that the endowment fund is as yet very small, consisting of five fully-paid-up shares in W. H. Clark Co. He stated, however, that he had secured promises of $10,000 each from the Colonial Bishops' Fund and the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, each sum to meet $10,000 from other sources. The endowment fund of the diocese of Calgary is to remain intact, as no provision is made for any reorganization in case of a division of the diocese. It is hoped to raise the larger proportion, if not the whole of the endowment fund for the new diocese, in this city.

Progress of Churches.
In contemplating the present status largely due to his personal energy and devotion. Christ Church and St. Paul's, both strong in church extension work, were doing well, he said, while St. Paul's congregation gave him special pleasure last winter, when during the week of St. Paul's absence in England, it was unanimously decided to contribute the minimum stipend required for a self-supporting status.

He thought with satisfaction of the present state of the diocese, whose present status has been doing so much, both before and since he was appointed rural dean, to provide, as opportunity offered, the ministrations of the church to people in distress with. In a considerable radius of his parish, under the Rev. Dr. George, Port-Sumner, which became self-supporting under the Rev. H. Ingram-Johnson, other parishes, like St. Luke's, Highland Park, and St. Andrew's, Edmonton, claimed their sympathy and consideration on account of the progress they are making, which should soon result in self-support.

Plans for Extension.
Referring to extension work in this district, the bishop said it would be necessary for the diocese, as soon as it could, to turn its attention to the spiritual needs of such districts as Fregan Lake, Dayland, Bawit and Jerome. Later, the diocese would consider of Camrose, the town on the C.P.R. east of Tofield; such towns as Lamont, Braderberg, etc., between Port Saskatchewan and Vegreville; the Middle Lake country; and other parts.

Proposed Bishopric College.
Reference was also made to the Bishop to the difficulty in securing suitable candidates for the ministry and said that the time was coming when Edmonton would have a diocesan college in affiliation with the University of Alberta.

The Rev. Dr. Gray Trinity was to be warmly congratulated upon the erection and completion of the new church on the South Side, as

CITIZENS ENGAGE IN RUNNING FIRE WITH MEN

Six Foreigners Arrested on Suspicion on Road to Old Town of Hazelton

Hazelton, B. C., Nov. 12.—The Union Bank at New Hazelton, four miles east of here, was robbed last evening by five masked men, presumably foreigners. The men and the cashier, who were in the bank about 7 o'clock, were taken off with booty amounting to $10,000. The robbers were at work in the bank about 7 o'clock when Cashier McQueen returned dispossessed. He then fled and hid in a bush. One of the men opened fire and the cashier, who was in the bank, was shot in the face, making an ugly wound. The men escaped with the cash and were untraced.

Citizens attracted by the shot, some themselves and hurried to the bank, just as the robbers were leaving. The citizens opened fire on the fleeing men.

DECLARES CABINET IS MARKING TIME ON HOME RULE QUESTION

Daily Mail Says Government Has
Information That Ulster
Holds 3,000 Rifles

WILL PERSUADE SOLDIERS REFUSE TO AIM IN ULSTER

In New Phase of Ulster Campaign
— Tories Are Unperturbed at Keighly Result

London, Nov. 12.—The increased majority given the Liberal candidate at Keighly gives the government an offset to the Reading result. The most notable feature of the polling, however, is the steady advance of the Laborites. In seven years their vote has increased 340, while the Liberals has decreased six hundred in the same period.

The Unionists profess to be unperturbed, urging Keighly as a counter-situation which gives no index to popular feeling, recalling that Mr. Bradburner, the successful candidate, favors a conference in settlement of the Irish difficulty.

The Daily Graphic makes the result a peg for diffidence. Unionist papers generally do not feature the Keighly election, but pay much attention to the cabinet difficulties over Ulster. They print a 3,000 word letter from F. E. Smith, consisting of quotations of nationalist abuses at the British army, which heralds a new phase of the Ulster campaign, directed to the persuading of soldiers to refuse to act if ordered to go to Ulster.

The Daily Mail declares the cabinet on Tuesday decided to no longer time the Ulster question, as they possess the information that Ulster holds 3,000 rifles, but insufficient ammunition.

FARMERS ENGAGED IN FALL PLOWING

Thrashing in Edmonton District
Practically Completed—Much
Fall Work Done

Thrashing in the Edmonton district is practically complete. The harvest is early, except for some green feed. The local elevators are receiving grain which they state is of a much better quality than last year. There has been no serious shortage of cars experienced in this locality, although some of the shippers state that they have had to wait for cars rather longer than they liked.

Good Average Yield.
Crops are on the whole yielding better than usual. A fair average for the year throughout the district would seem to be, for wheat 35 bushels per acre; for oats, 65, and for barley 25. Numerous farmers have had exceptionally good yields and some of wheat close to bushels to acre, say 75 to 100 bushels and barley so to 50 bushels are reported. The best feature of the season this year, however, is the all round excellence of the quality of the yield.

Irreversible Snow.
From a tour of the surrounding country an important impression is seen in the fall work being done by the farmers. More fall ploughing is being done than ever before and a large amount of new land is being broken up. Encouraged by the results of this season's crop farmers are preparing to sow a large acreage of wheat next spring.

A noticeable feature of the fall ploughing on the farms is the amount of discing being done. Farmers are evidently going to more trouble in the preparation of the soil than has hitherto been the practice.

Ben Accord's Fine Record.
Thrashing operations in the Ben Accord district are about completed. Delays caused by weather conditions were very slight; other incidental hindrances were also short, so that the thrashing machines have been worked to their utmost capacity.

The Ben Accord Thrashing company thrashed for E. Milligan 4,000 bushels in 11 hours. The yield generally is good and quality will grade high. E. Butt thrashed 5,000 bushels on one-quarter section.

The Nelson and McLaughlin outfits also made quick but very successful runs. Alex. Lewis had a large field of wheat that yielded 70 bushels to the acre.

OFFER 200 ACRES IN THE CITY OF BRADFORD

Low Moor Co. Follow Duke of Sutherland in Offering Worthless Land to Lloyd George.

London, Nov. 12.—Following the Duke of Sutherland and others, the Low Moor company, coal land owners and iron masters of Bradford, have made an offer to Mr. Lloyd George, in order to disprove the statement made recently by the chancellor of the exchequer that urban lands were being withheld or offered at unreasonable prices and that this was forcing small farmers to emigrate from Great Britain. The Low Moor company offers to sell to the government all the land's own valuation 200 acres within the city of Bradford.

Sale of Thoroughbreds at Lexington.
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 12.—Fifty head of high class thoroughbred horses were sold at auction yesterday, the first day of one of the most important sales held in the month in years. Christmas Star, a mare, brought the highest price for the day. Another mare, Starry Night, brought $2,000. The noted racers, Jack Atkins and Rain, will go under the hammer before the sale closes.

CANADA'S BIGGEST FREIGHTER IS LOST

London, Ont., Nov. 12.—Another horrible lake tragedy was added to the long list resulting from the blizzard of Sunday night, when wreckage from the "James Caruthers," owned by the St. Lawrence and Chicago Steamship Lines Company and operated by the R. O. Lines, was washed ashore. That she has foundered a few miles off timbers harbor seems a certainty, and her crew of 25 men, headed by Captain W. H. Wright, of Toronto, have been given up as lost.

The "James Caruthers" was the biggest vessel ever constructed in Canada. She was built by the Colborne Shipbuilding Company at Collingwood, and was put in commission only in July last. The boat and her cargo are valued at over $700,000.

PANAMA CANAL TO BE READY FOR SPRING

First Deep-Draft Vessel Through
Canal Will Carry President
Wilson

Washington, Nov. 12.—The first deep draft vessel to pass through the Panama Canal from ocean to ocean will be one of the Government Panama canal steamers, now en route between New York and Colon, if the plan which Secretary Garrison has in contemplation finally is adopted. The secretary's idea is to allow Colonel Goethals all the time he requires to complete the Canal and experiment with it before this initial trip is made. Then, having aboard President Wilson and some of the members of the cabinet, the congressional committee having jurisdiction over the canal, and a few newspaper men, the Panama liner will pass through the waterway from Cristobal, on the Atlantic side, to Balboa, on the Pacific side.

Secretary Garrison said that while no positive date could be fixed for this ceremony, he thought that Colonel Goethals would succeed in clearing the way through the Culebra side by February 1st, and that it certainly would be possible to have deep draft vessels through by next spring.

The Fram, Captain Amundsen's famous Anti-Arctic ship, was lying in the harbor of Colon when Secretary Garrison sailed from the isthmus. It has been promised that the Fram shall be among the first vessels to pass through the canal.

AROUND THE CITY

(From Evening Edition)

The funeral of William Ed. Wilson took place this afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence, 48 Cameron street. Dr. McQueen was the officiating clergyman.

The death occurred this morning of George Schuler, the four-year-old son of Mr. Tom Schuler, 46th avenue S. W. South-side. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The body of Howard Martin, the brakeman, who was killed near Oxbow on Saturday night, was shipped from the undertaking parlors of Campbell & McKinley last night to Falconer, Ont., for interment.

At the Norwood Methodist Parsonage on Monday evening, November 11, Rev. W. A. Smith joined in marriage Harold Charles Seal, of Edmonton, and Ellen Coffey, of London, England, and William Frederick Lattor, of Edmonton, and Winifred F. Henlon, of Oxbow, England.

Wish Wind Drive.—The statement that refreshments would be handed around during the interval, at the wish drive to be held in connection with the Welsh society next Thursday evening in the Cameron Hall on St. Mary's avenue, was inadvertently omitted by the secretary of the society, who now makes this correction.

Study Post Office Methods.—Ex-Mayor G. R. Armstrong, who has been appointed postmaster at Edmonton, will be required by the terms of his appointment to go to Winnipeg to undergo a course of training in modern post office methods. Mr. Armstrong will leave for Winnipeg in the course of a few days and on his return will at once resume the conduct of the post office here.

Extinguished With Chemicals.—The excellence of the fire-fighting appliances at the C.P.R. sheds was proven this morning, when a heated freight car alongside the shed caught fire. The flames, which but for promptitude, would quickly have created great havoc, were attacked by the shed staff with chemical apparatus and water buckets, and the services of the city fire department were thus dispensed with.

A sacred concert will be held in St. John's Lutheran church, corner Kensington avenue and Piccadilly street, on Thursday, November 14th, commencing at 8 p.m. sharp. Wm. K. Tomkinson, organist of Knox Presbyterian church, will perform on the new pipe organ, recently installed by the Warren Church Organ Co. of Woodstock, Ont. Mrs. H. Mosier will render some German folk-songs. The choir of the church as well as that of the Lutheran church in Strathcona will take part in the program.

For Practising Without License.—Dr. W. J. Kelly, of this city, was charged this morning in the police court, of the issuance of the local Medical Council, with practicing medicine here without a license. The case is set for trial within two months after the date the doctor has appeared before the magistrate on this charge. The previous occasion a fine of $10 and costs was imposed. The case today was adjourned at the request of the defense.

A meeting was held at the Odd-fellows' Hall, Newwood Boulevard, last evening, under the auspices of the Civic Government League of Edmonton, when Henry J. Roche, secretary, and C. S. Stevens addressed the meeting on this topic. Mr. Roche outlined the principles and the operation of elective commission government, embodying the initiative, referendum and recall, while Mr. Stevens made a parallel presentation of the chief characteristics of the alternate form of government and the elective commission system. Mr. Alexander presided. A general discussion followed the addresses.

John Valjean Lecture.—On Friday night, at eight o'clock, Rev. Solomon Cheever, D.D., of Toronto, will appear in McLaughlin Church Auditorium, under the auspices of the Men's Association. He will deliver his famous lecture on Jean Valjean, that immortal story from Victor Hugo's masterpiece, "Les Misérables." This is not a lecture in the ordinary sense of the term, but is rather a strong dramatic recital of one of the greatest literary gems in the world. The story has been read by thousands everywhere, and the lecture has been delivered by Mr. Cheever hundreds of times in all parts of the country.

The Overcoats Club. after a vacation of three weeks, will hold a concert at their hall in the Sandhill Hotel, Thursday evening to which many of the best singers and instrumentalists in the city will contribute. Several ladies, including Mrs. Irwin, are on the program, while Messrs. Parsons, Arneson, Davidson, Edwards and Foster will form a quartette which should be worth going a long way to hear, the same gentlemen also contributing solo. Mr. David Jones is another artist who will be listened to with interest, while Messrs. Brockington and Pemberton will provide the humorous element. The concert, for which a small charge will be made, commences at eight o'clock.

GOODS BOARDS IN NORTH.

James P. Hughes, who for the past year has been connected with the city engineering department, and has lately been employed by the city in connection with the re-designation of streets, and house numbers, has just recently returned from an extensive trip in the neighborhood of the city of steel on the Duanevan road. Mr. Hughes reports a steady influx of settlers into this district and in the most remote portions of the country, to the north of Edmonton it is not hard to find the nucleus of a farm in the form of a rude homesteaders cabin. The provincial government are doing extensive road building in all portions of the north country, and the erection of bridges on the Pembina at many points is urgently advocated by the settlers.

In speaking of the roads, Mr. Hughes explains that they compare favorably with country roads in old times, and are in some places better than the roads of the United States. Practically every settlement was situated with his holdings and they all look forward to the time when a better marketing facilities, their district will rank with the best in Alberta.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

Considerable men have for the past two or three days been busy in Edmonton. Yesterday a man named March was committed for trial on a charge of assisting $150 from a Galician, and this morning there were two cases reported to the justice of the peace. In each case the lower just recently had come into the city off a railway construction gang, and the circumstances would indicate that there is a clone of thieves waiting for these men to arrive. Their method is to get acquainted with their intended victim, buy two or three drinks for him, then ask him if he has a room for the night. If he has not, they take him to a rooming house and while he is there go through his pockets, then disappear before he awakens in the morning.

There have so far been no arrests in the cases reported this morning. One of them occurred at 215 Fraser avenue. The victim of this theft was J. F. Rederick, who has been working on the G. T. P. construction. He arrived in the city yesterday with about $100, and now hasn't a cent. He has given the description of the men who were with him all day yesterday to the police, but they have not located them as yet.

The second case reported was of a similar nature. The victim was a Galician and he was taken to a rooming house on Second street. This man, who is about 30 years of age, was the most of the day yesterday, and could give a very good description of the men who went through his pockets. He states he lost $100.

IS CRITICIZED FOR HUGE EXPENDITURES

Paper Says Churchill Is Inflating Without Precedent Naval Expenditures

London, Nov. 12.—Considerable space is devoted in today's papers to comment on Mr. Churchill's forecast of increased naval estimates next year. The Telegraph says the Admiralty will demand from the House of Commons in February considerable supplementary votes to meet the current year's needs. The Daily Chronicle, recalling that Mr. Churchill's father sacrificed himself on the altar of retrenchment, criticizes the present First Lord of the Admiralty for inflating, without precedent, the naval expenditures. It says his policy is creating profound liberal misgivings. The Daily News declares an appeal for reduced naval expenditure would better express the liberal mind, as they see no justification for the ruinous size of the estimates.

THE ACID TEST OF A CENTURY

1890 With land as free as the air, and with thousands upon thousands of square miles to choose from, the Indians of the Central Interior of British Columbia selected the present site of FORT FRASER for their annual Pow-wows.

1805 SIMON FRASER, the foremost frontiersman of his time, journeyed into the Central Interior and made FORT FRASER his headquarters and base of supplies.

1807 The establishment of FORT FRASER by the Hudson's Bay Company. During the next hundred years it remained the undisputed trade centre of the entire district.

1904 Preliminary survey of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway passes through FORT FRASER.

1911 FORT FRASER townsite acquired by the Dominion Stock & Bond Corporation of Vancouver, and extensive plans formulated for its development.

1912 FORT FRASER Townsite cleared. Roadways constructed. First modern houses and stores erected.

1913 Over fifty buildings completed. Many others under course of construction. The increasing population made these buildings absolutely necessary. As an example of the cost—the nails used cost 25¢ per lb., including freight. The new city of FORT FRASER now has a bank, Government headquarters, hotel, stores, church, hospital, newspaper, sawmill, school and comfortable dwellings. And all this before the railway arrives.

1914 Official announcement of the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway which will place FORT FRASER in rail connection with the Pacific and thousands of cities to the south and east.

By pure force of its commanding geographical position, FORT FRASER has for over a century held dominion over the entire province. The great Central Interior of British Columbia. It has stood THE ACID TEST OF A CENTURY, and as the population increased its commercial importance multiplied. It is a certain conclusion that FORT FRASER will, with the advent of rail transportation, the opening up of its numerous radiating roadways and the colonization of the great areas of agricultural land tributary to it, become one of the important, prosperous cities of Western Canada. Its command of the trade of Central Interior is complete and undisputed, and its future one of success and prosperity.

APPLICATION FOR LICENSE WITHDRAWN

City Park Hotel Does Not Pursue Application for License on Alberta Avenue

The application of George Percy Bluff, for a license to sell beer at the City Park Hotel, was withdrawn at the meeting of the license commissioners yesterday before any action was taken. The license was strong in the southeast section of the city and a number of petitions have been submitted to the board. Among those who were present in object to the license were Hon. J. McQueen, Hon. J. Webster, Hon. A. W. Cuthbert, Hon. A. R. McFarlane, Hon. L. White, Messrs. Thompson and Herrick of Eastwood. The application of Frank Henderson for a new hotel license at the Valley Hotel, was not recommended. An application for a wholesale liquor license by the McCartney liquor company was granted without comment. An Application Refused. At a meeting of the board held at the City Park Hotel, the application for a second hotel license in that town. The application was first made some time ago and has been adjourned three times on account of the death of the town having more than 100 population. The original application was based on the population at the time of August last. At the meeting at Hardy, nine witnesses gave evidence on oath as to the population in August last and the witnesses stated that the town's population was only 400, or three short of the number required for a second license. The board thereupon refused the application. The town has grown considerably since last August and there is little doubt that the town has today attained a population to warrant a second license being granted. The Central Alberta Hotel Co., Limited, who were for a new hotel license at the Valley Hotel, the applicants gave notice that they would make a new application.

CABINET SHUFFLE IN QUEBEC FORECASTED

Hon. C. Devlin to Resign—Three Bye-Elections Will Be Necessary

Quebec, Que., Nov. 12.—A ministerial shuffle is going to take place in the provincial cabinet with the beginning of the session. It is anticipated that Hon. C. Devlin, minister of education, will resign his portfolio on account of persistent ill-health. Mr. Devlin has been very sick for over a year and as there is not much improvement in his condition he has made up his mind to give up politics in order to recuperate his strength in a less strenuous atmosphere. Hon. O. Mercier, minister for Chateaugay, is very likely to replace him in the cabinet. At the same time, Hon. J. E. Caron will resign as minister of agriculture to preside over the new road department, while C. Desage, speaker of the assembly, will succeed him as minister of agriculture. M. J. A. Tassier, member for Three Rivers, and vice-president of the chamber, will be elevated to the speaker's chair. This re-organization will render bye-elections in Chateaugay, Quebec County and in Temiscamingue necessary.

CITY BEATEN AGAIN IN STREET NUMBERING INJUNCTION CASE

The application made by the city for the dissolving of the injunction against the new street numbering system, previously granted by Justice Stuart, was yesterday refused by Justice Black in the court of appeals. The costs of the application must be paid by the city.

Ground upon which the city solicitor urged dismissal was that there was no provision made in the act under which the case was brought for such an application. City Solicitor Brown and Assistant Solicitor Gillingham appeared in support of the application and F. D. Byers, of Byers and Wright, opposed it on behalf of A. H. Lawrence, who originally secured the injunction.

More Changes

This last week many more changes were made throughout the store. The partitions back of the main floor were removed and the main floor is now extended to the new building. The Jewell Department is now on the main floor, back of the Men's Department, with double the amount of space it formerly had. The Candy Department is now situated on the main floor, being removed from the Grocery Department, third floor. The new fixtures are arriving from Chicago, and are being installed as they arrive. The new elevators are running next week, and will be ready for use just as soon as the iron railings are put up. There are three new passenger elevators which will hold twenty-four people each. Work is being started on the new lunchroom, and we hope to announce their opening soon. The last?
